RIN: 1205-AB93

Publication ID: Fall 2018

Title: • Temporary Employment of H-2B Foreign Workers in Certain Itinerant Occupations in the United States

Abstract:

The United States Department of Labor's (DOL), Employment and Training Administration and Wage and Hour Division, and the United States Department of Homeland Security (DHS), U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, are jointly amending regulations regarding the H-2B non-immigrant visa program at 20 CFR part 655, subpart A. The Notice of Proposed Rulemaking (NPRM) will establish standards and procedures for employers seeking to hire foreign temporary nonagricultural workers for certain itinerant job opportunities, including entertainers and carnivals and utility vegetation management.
