Refugee Arrivals FY2018

Refugee Council USA

Mid-Year Report

Each fiscal year the president establishes a ceiling for the number of refugees admitted into the United States. Since the Obama administration set the ceiling at 110,000 in 2017, that number has plummeted to 30,000 in 2019.

Out of the 30,000 available spots, roughly 12,000 refugees have been admitted into the United States this fiscal year. Although we are halfway through the fiscal year, we are not halfway to reaching an already historically low goal.

REFUGEE RESETTLEMENT (/RESETTLEMENT-PROCESS- ELIGIBILITY)

Resettlement allows vulnerable refugees to live in safety and freedom in a new country. The U.S. program provides new beginnings for thousands of refugees each year.
